Itinerary For Shriner's

Caribbean Cruise

. . . what you'll see
. . . what you'll do
. . . where you'll go!

KINGSTON, JAMAICA. The port and capital on this island of exotic tropical gardens, palm-fringed beaches and blue mountains, Kingston is steeped in centuries-old English traditions with a rich and colorful history. You'll enjoy browsing through the shops filled with British merchandise and beautiful native handicrafts.

ST. THOMAS, VIRGIN ISLANDS. A fascinating and intriguing little island abounding in beaches and beauty. You'll love to shop in this world renowned Free-Port, the only port in the Caribbean where you can purchase $200 worth of merchandise and one gallon of alcoholic beverages DUTY FREE!

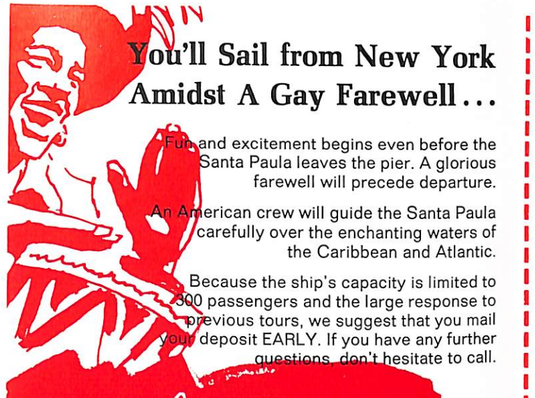
CURACAO, NETHERLANDS, ANTILLES. This colorful little port on a Dutch Island is superb. You'll find a delightful contrast between the gaily-colored Dutch Architecture and the modern hotels. The shops offer enticing merchandise from all over the world at Free-Port prices.

PORT-AU-PRINCE, HAITI. This history-laden capital is regarded as one of the world's most exotic islands under the sun. The primitive beat of voodoo drums is still heard in the back country. Here, where French and English are spoken, you'll find a remarkable blend of cultures and discover dramatic Haitian works of art.

LA GUAIRA (Caracas), VENEZUELA. Mile-high mountains form a spectacular background for this gateway to Caracas, Venezuela's brilliant and modern capital.

ARUBA, NETHERLANDS, ANTILLES. While a sister island to Curacao, Aruba has a very distinct and charming nature all its own. Beautiful white sandy beaches and the lovely Aruba Caribbean Hotel with a glamorous nightclub and exciting Casino are special points of interest.

NASSAU, BAHAMA ISLANDS. The capital of the Bahamas. Sample its gay charms and old-world atmosphere. A beautiful residential town and tourist center bearing the British tradition and a relaxing way of life. And don't miss the breath-taking views from ancient hill-top forts or fail to see a magnificent sunset from a palm-fringed beach.



You'll Sail from New York Amidst A Gay Farewell . . .

Fun and excitement begins even before the Santa Paula leaves the pier. A glorious farewell will precede departure.

An American crew will guide the Santa Paula carefully over the enchanting waters of the Caribbean and Atlantic.

Because the ship's capacity is limited to 300 passengers and the large response to previous tours, we suggest that you mail your deposit EARLY. If you have any further questions, don't hesitate to call.
